Rumored That It Is In Clutches of Harriman.

SALE ADMITTED BY THORNE

He Denies that Rock Island Interests Have Secured Control of the Road. But Rumor Says Harriman Is in Control.

New York, Oct. 24.—That Oakleigh Thorne has sold the Central of Georgia railway was a piece of important financial news that slipped from him unawares in an interview.

Mr. Thorne was discussing the report that the stringency of the mony market had hit him heavily at a moment when he had extended his credit to the limit to carr on his various business enterprises, two of the most recent of which were the purchase of the Georgia railway and of control of the Colonial Trust company, which is now run as a branch of his Trust Company of America.

"There is no truth in that," Mr. Thorne said. "I have never been better off than at the present time."

"We thought perhaps some of your fortune was tied up in the Central of Georgia railway."

"I am not in that any more. I have sold it."

"To the Rock Island people?

"No, not to them. I should rather not say just now to whom I have sold it."

Alleged Sale by the Southern.

The Central of Georgia Railway, which has a capital of $5,000,000 and operates more than 1,877 miles of track, was controlled until the spring of this year by interests associated with the Southern Railway. The Southern incurred a great deal of criticism in the south on account of its control of this line, which was considered as a competing road, and negotiations were concluded for its sale and the sale of the steamship lines it owns to Oakleigh Thorne and Marsden J. Perry. Since that time rumors were persistent that the steamship lines were to be sold to C. W. Morse. Nothing came of this, and the events of the last week have made it very unlikely that it ever will come to anything.

Income Bond Trouble.

More recently there has been much discussion about the rights of the holders of the road's $15,000,000 five per cent income bonds. A few weeks ago a committee representing these bondholders came to New York to examine the books of the company. They had heard that the company intended to default on the payment of interest on the income bonds of the second and third class. They overhauled the books thoroughly, had several conferences with Mr. Thorne and Mr. Perry, and went back south, having made it clear that they wanted all the interest paid. If the books had been correctly kept, they said, the earnings would amply cover all the interest.

The directors of the road evidently thought otherwise, for they held a meeting shortly afterwards, passed the interest entirely on the third class of bonds and paid only a small part of the interest on the second class. The bondholders responded by forming a protective committee headed by C. Altschul, of Lazard Freres, and announced that they would fight the matter out in the courts. They obtained the deposit of a majority of the bonds in support of their action. The sale of the road, it is suggested, may be a part of this fight.

Has Harriman Lost Central?

A mere possible theory, however, is that it was sold to Mr. Harriman to be used in connection with the Illinois Central when he had no idea that this control of this line would be jeopardized by Stuyvesant Fish. The Rock Island people, to whom the road would perhaps be a still more valuable property, making a connection at Birmingham, Ala., with their system, sold some time ago that they were out of the market for it, but that Mr. Harriman was after it.

IS IT MRS. HARTRIDGE?

Body Found May Be that of Lawyer's Missing Wife.

New York, Oct. 24.—The body of a woman of refined appearance found Tuesday floating in the East river, answers in most particulars the description of Mrs. Clifford W. Hartridge, the missing wife of Harry K. Thaw's counsel and friend. The body will be viewed by a member of the family to determine if it is Mrs. Hartridge.

Mrs. Leslie W. Russell, the missing woman's mother, said at her home that she was impressed with the similarity of the description of the body in the Fordham morgue with that of her daughter. The only difference seems to be that when she went away Mrs. Hartridge wore a black skirt, while the skirt of the woman found in the river is a very dark gray.

The wife of the lawyer could be positively identified by a mole behind her right ear but there is an abrasion behind the right ear, which might have easily removed such a mark.

The woman's nails were manicured and she bore every evidence of having come from good surroundings.

Coroner Schwaneck said that the body might prove to be Mrs. Hartridge's. She has been missing nineteen days.

RACED AUTO; MET DEATH.

Young Man Killed and Five Companions Injured.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—While racing an automobile on Michigan boulevard early Tuesday morning, Adrian Gibson, 20 years old, of Cleveland, son of a prominent real estate dealer, was killed and five companions were injured.

Gibson's automobile skidded, struck the curbstone and was smashed. He was buried beneath the wreckage. The others injured are:

A. D. Kent, George A. Slausin and H. A. Bears, said to be from Cleveland, and Peter Comberger and Edward Ettel, of Chicago.

The first named three and Gibson had been touring several states in the automobile, which was presented to young Gibson by his father.

DRAGGED TO DEATH.

Boy Tied Himself to Pet Cow and She Ran Away.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 24.—Robert Carr, seven-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. William Carr, residing at Park City, a suburb, is dead. The family owned a pet cow, which they had raised.

The boy was in the habit of playing with her, and he made a noose of the end of a rope, attached it to the cow and put it around his body. The cow became frightened and ran full speed down Nichols avenue, dragging the boy 200 yards before she was stopped. His head was crushed into a jelly and death following quickly.

Policemen Guard Workmen.

Havana, Oct. 24. In order to minimize the chances for disorder and to prevent the interfering of men who are willing to work in the places of strikers the mayor of Havana has forbidden open air meetings and authorized the railway companies to employ armed guards to protect their workmen. Reinforcements of police men now are guarding buildings under construction, being fearful that the striking masons may attack the buildings in an attempt to damage the buildings.

Change at Lucy Cobb.

Athens, Ga., Oct. 24. At the meeting of the trustees of Lucy Cobb institute Misses Susie Gerdine and Annie Brumby, of this city, were elected principals of the Lucy Cobb for the year 1908-9. They will take charge of the institute next September. Miss M. Rutherford and Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb, who have had charge of the institute for more than twenty years, retire from educational work next commencement.

In a "Dry" Town, Too!

Lima, Ohio, Oct. 24.—In the "dry" village of Spencerville, this county, John Harter, crazed with drink, assaulted his wife. She sustained fractures of two ribs and other internal injuries. Harter was held to the grand jury for trial.

Alarmed Italian Depositors Almost Cause Run on Bank.

A QUICK-WITTED SECRETARY

He Ordered Large Quantities of Currency To Be Displayed and the Alarmed Crowd Dispersed, Preventing Run on the Bank.

New York, Oct. 24.—Hundreds of Italians fearing that "The Bank at One Hundred and Forty-eighth street" had suspended payment, started a run on the branch Dollar Savings bank, which is located next door to the branch institution of the Knickerbocker Trust company in the Bronx.

The Dollar Savings concern's difficulties lasted only until an interpreter could explain to the alarmed depositors that it was the Knickerbocker and not the Dollar Savings bank that was in trouble.

When the Knickerbocker branch suspended payment the news flashed through the Italian section like a prairie fire. The message was vague—only that the bank in One Hundred and Forty-eight street could not pay depositors.

Hundreds of Italians went to the bank, but the quick-witted secretary of the institution, seeing that a mistake was being made, ordered large quanities of currency to be placed where the clamoring crowd could see it. A sight of the money seemed to satisfy the Italians, and the run thus ended.

ANXIETY CONTINUES,

Though Presence of Cortelyou Has Had Good Effect.

New York, Oct. 24.—Anxiety over the situation that has developed in the trust company and banking situation during the past week continued Wednesday, although the nervousness and alarm so noticeable Tuesday was considerably lessened by the presence of Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou in the city and his promise to remain at the sub-treasury throughout the day. Mr. Cortelyou's statement made Tuesday night affirming the strong condition of the national banks of this city also had a very good effect on the sentiment and served to relieve the apprehension of business men that the curtailment of credits through the situation following the suspension of payment by the Knickerbocker Trust company might hamper the financing of general mercantile affairs.

The unfavorable developments of the night was the news that the Trust Company of America, one of the city's largest financial institutions with deposits approximately $50,000,000 and total assets and liabilities in excess of $61,000,000, was in need of assistance. At the same time it became known that the Trust Company of America had given a statement of its affairs to other bankers with a request for aid, it was also announced that liberal assistance will be given the Trust Company of America and also that that institution had in its vaults $12,000,000 in cash with which to begin payment of its depositors should there be any demand.

Ambushed by Moors.

Paris, Oct. 24.—A dispatch has been received here from General Drude, commander of the French expeditionary force in Morocco, saying that a French reconnoitering party was ambushed while proceeding in the direction of Taddert. Captain Jandey and one privats of the Chasseurs Afriques were killed and six men injured. General Drude at once went out with a battalion, but when he got to the place the Moors who had made the ambush, had disappeared.

Student's Fatal Leap.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 24.—Hiram Tooker, aged 16 years, a student at West Lafayette High School, was instantly killed by a Big Four passenger train. Tooker jumped from a freight train and was struck by the passenger engine.

MARKED PASSAGE IN BIBLE

Then Woman Hanged Herself from a Transom Window.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 24.—Heartbroken because she believed she had been deserted by her four adult children, Mrs. Sophia Rummell, aged 59, committed suicide by hanging herself from a transome at the home of Mrs. A. C. Grassow, of Highland avenue who had given her shelter while she was looking for employment.

Mrs. Rummell was a devout Christian. She was reading her Bible just before she took her life and in the book was found the following marked passage: "For thou shalt be taken away from all, and from henceforth thou shalt remain with my son, and with such as be like thee, until the times be ended." On the page was written the word "Immediately."

Mrs. Rummell tore a cloth into strips to make a rope. Mrs. Grassow said that three of Mrs. Rummell's children were able to give her a home, but she had to work for a livelihood after the death of her husband two years ago.

BALLOON SAILS 616 MILES.

United States Has Probably Won the Lahm Trophy.

Caledonia, Ont., Oct. 24.—The balloon, the United States, of which Major Hersey, of the United States weather bureau at Washington, is the pilot, landed about 12 miles south of Hamilton, Ont., at 6:15 p. m. Tuesday.

The United States crossed the state of Illinois, thence across Lake Michigan and Lake St. Clair to the middle of Lake Erie, when a change of wind carried it north into Canada to the place of landing.

The distance from St Louis to Hamilton on air line, is approximately 620 miles. Therefore, the United States traveled about 616 miles, which is far ahead of the record made by Lieutenant Lahm, whose balloon won the international cup; sailing from Paris to a point in England, 402 miles distant.

SECURES VERDICT OF $25,000.

Jury Allows Mrs. Kenyon-Warner the Above Damages.

New York, Oct. 24.—Shortly after midnight Wednesday morning the jury in the case of Mrs. Ellen E. Kenyon-Warner who sued Dr. Elavius Packer and Dr. Sidney D. Wingus in the supreme court at New City, Rockland county, for $50,000 damages because they adjudged her insane and caused her commitment to the Middletown insane asylum, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Warner, who is a well known author and educator, is awarded a verdict of $25,000. The jury found that she was sane and rational on July 13, 1904, when she was examined by the two alienists and that they were negligent in making their examination.

ATE BUZZARD'S FLESH.

One Man Died and Two Others May Not Live from Its Effects.

Corbin, Ky., Oct. 24.—An Italian section hand, employed by the Louisville and Nashville railroad killed a buzzard Tuesday and cooked the bird, serving it with dumplings. He invited three other Italians to partake of the meal. Immediately afterward all four became violently ill. An hour later the host died in great agony and his three companions are not expected to recover.

Physicians attending the men say their condition is due entirely to having eaten of the buzzard flesh.

Given $5,000 Verdict.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 24.—In the case of Lucas [illegible] Southern railway to recover $[illegible] personal damages, a city court jury has rendered a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $5,000. Lucas was a car inspector on the Southern railroad. While in the performance of his duty, according to the petition he was called upon to fix a broken door on a car loaded with cotton. It was claimed the cotton was improperly loaded, and that the door fell upon him, with two bales of cotton on top of the door.

$5,000,000 FOR ORPHANS

Institution for Girls Patterned After Girard College.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 24.—It was announced that the late A. J. Carson, a millionaire of this city who died suddenly in Paris last week, provided for an institution for orphan girls after the Girard college plan which is exclusively for boys. The bequest becomes effective at the death of the widow, Mrs. Carson. The institution is located at Flourtown, [illegible] line, in Montgomery county.

The will is almost identical with that of Stephen Girard, founder of the largest college of the world. Like Girard's, Carson's bequest provides that religion shall not be taught, religious denominations are excluded, religious services shall not be held, and instruction that will be exclusive to any church.

Was Murdered, Says Coroner.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 24.—Thomas Berry, who registered from Ga., was found dead in a room at the Fairfax hotel. He had been dead several days. There is no question in the coroner's office that Berry was murdered. There is absolutely no clue to the murderer of the deed. One wound in the back of the head, which caused death, is deemed sufficient to cause death, in the opinion of physicians, but could not have been self-inflicted.

GEOLOGICAL SURVEY IS TO BE MADE

Work on This Important Movement to Begin Immediately.

PROFESSOR CLAPP IS HERE

Will Make Gainesville Headquarters, and Alachua County Will Receive First Attention—Efforts of Congressman Clark Will Bear Fruit.

Hon. Frank Clark, Congressman the Second District, largely through the influence of whom an order was passed for a geological survey of Florida, has received the following letter from H. C. Rizer, acting director of the United States Geological Survey at Washington, relative to the matter, which is evidence that the work will be taken up immediately and pushed uninterruptedly through to completion:

"Washington, D. C., Oct. 22, 1907.

"Hon. Frank Clark, Gainesville, Fla.

"Sir—I am pleased to inform you that a representative of the Geological Survey has just left Washington for Gainesville, Florida, for the purpose of beginning an investigation of the ground waters of that State. He will shortly be joined by another member of the survey, and these two, together with the State Geologist of Florida, expect to finish the entire State during the next five or six months.

"Gainesville will be the headquarters for all this work, and Alachua county will receive immediate attention. Very respectfully,

"H. C. RIZER, Acting Director."

The above will be gratifying information to the people of Florida, especially this section, as the investigation will mean a great deal in the matter of enlightening the public. This section of the State, especially Alachua county, is of a most peculiar formation, which has baffled the public for centuries. The presence of numbers of sinks in the vicinity of Gainesville, prominent among which are those known as the Devil's Millhopper and Alachua Sink, is due to the crest formation of the earth and underground streams. It was with a view of having these causes investigated that Congressman Clark advocated this survey.

Prof. E. G. Clapp of the Director's office arrived in the city Thursday as a representative of the survey, and will begin this important work at once. As stated in the letter, he will have an assistant, both of whom will work in co-operation with the State geologist.

Gainesville will be the headquarters of the party, and it is expected that about six months will be required to complete the survey.

LICENSE TAXES.

Collector Dickinson Gives Some Interesting Figures on This Line.

County Tax Collector W. D. Dickinson, who is always alert to his official duties, furnishes some interesting matter along the line of the issue of license taxes for the years 1907 and 1908.

The first fourteen days of the present month there were issued 233 licenses. The State's proportion of money collected amounted to $1,627.50, while the county received $864.74, making the total collection of $2,492.24.

The entire issue of last year was 634 licenses, which shows one or two things—either a large number engaged in various occupations have not taken out a license for the present period, or there has been a remarkable decrease in the number of businesses and professions in the county.

"I will make my official license report on November 12," remarked Collector Dickinson in speaking of the matter, "and all who are liable for a license should attend to this matter at once, as I feel sure they will not appreciate seeing their names on the delinquent list, which certainly will be the case if they continue to delay.

"And now, a word in reference to the 1907 taxes," continued the Collector. "I am now ready to issue receipts for the year's tax. All money paid on property tax of 1907 up to December 1 will be given a discount of two per cent. That paid during the month of December will be subject to one per cent discount."

W. M. Smith of Archer had the honor of getting receipt No. 1 for property, while the honor of the first poll tax belongs to W. W. Harper of Newberry.

Killed Big Rattler.

Mr. Beville, who resides a short distance from the city, while on his way here Thursday came in contact with a monster rattlesnake, which he dispatched without mercy and as promptly as he could find a stick.

His snakeship was about five feet in length, and was the possessor of ten rattles and a button.

Mr. King, who is a member of the State Board of Control, is one of the most extensive owners of cattle in South Florida, and is known as the Cattle King. He is desirous of improving his stock, and is to be congratulated upon the possession of this fine Jersey.

Inspected the Road.

John G. Dampier of Hague, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, was in the city on official business Wednesday, having come to accompany Commissioner Pedrick on a road-inspection trip.

Messrs. Dampier, Pedrick, J. D. Stringfellow and Supervisor J. R. Emerson took a trip over the route of the new proposed Newberry road, spending the greater part of the day. They found an abundance of clay along the route, and Commissioner Dampier appeared well pleased with the inspection.

A FALLING LIMB CAUSED HIS DEATH

Wm. M. Baldree of Otter Creek Victim of a Peculiar Accident.

A LIMB CRUSHED HIS SKULL

Was a Woodman for Otter Creek Lumber Company, and a Man Well Known and Well Liked by All—Survived by Wife and Ten Children.

William M. Baldree, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Otter Creek, was the victim of an accident Wednesday which cost the unfortunate man his life, having died forty minutes after his skull was crushed by a falling limb.

Mr. Baldree was for several years associated with Hon. W. H. Anderson of Bronson in the naval stores business, but for the past two years has been in the employ of the Otter Creek Lumber Company as a woodsman. It was in the faithful discharge of his duty Wednesday that he lost his life.

From the information which could be secured it was learned that Mr. Baldree was riding through the forest on horseback under an immense tree which workmen were engaged in felling. A limb crashed down, striking the unfortunate man on the head and fracturing his skull, shortly after which the end came, despite the fact that everything possible was done to save him.

Deceased was about forty years of age and a native of Georgia. He has been in Levy county for many years, however, where he has reared a devoted family. He is survived by a wife and ten children, to whom the sympathy of all is extended.

The remains were brought to this city and turned over to the Thomas Undertaking Company, and on Thursday were shipped to Homerville, Ga., his former home, for interment.

K. OF P. ROLL CALL.

One of the Most Enjoyable and Successful Meetings Ever Held Here.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the Knights of Pythias ever held here was that of Tuesday night, when about fifty members of the order reported for roll-call during the annual session of the order for that purpose.

There were present not only members of the lodge from the city, but Knights from everywhere within a radius of fifteen or twenty miles came to attend the meeting.

After the regular lodge meeting, oysters in all styles and other good things to eat were served and much enjoyed. W. B. Saunders was in direct charge of the refreshment department and his work was the best evidence that everything was all right and served in the best of style.

There were several interesting talks, Robert McClellan was the toastmaster and responses to his remarks were made by Col. Thos. Fieldhetter, J. A. Robertson, Hodges, R. T. Schafer, Dr. Chas. A. Faircloth, Rev. S. B. Rogers and others.

In short the evening was one most enjoyed and those in attendance celebrated the occasion.

The evening was passed in a most pleasant manner during which delicious refreshments were served.

NOTICE

To the People of Gainesville.

All persons in Gainesville must hold themselves responsible for any weakness or suffering caused from old age, chronic coughs or colds, bronchitis, weak lungs, run-down conditions, stomach troubles, nervousness or poor blood when we are willing to sell them the real cod liver preparation, Vinol, and return their money if it does not benefit.

The reason Vinol is so successful in restoring health and creating strength is because it contains in addition to tonic iron all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work.

Unlike old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, it is deliciously palatable, agreeable to the weakest stomach, therefore, unequalled as a strength creator and tonic reconstructor.

Our local druggist, W. M. Johnson, says: "It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Gainesville, and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging-on coughs, bronchitis or incipient consumption, to try Vinol on our guarantee." W. M. Johnson, Druggist, Gainesville, Fla.

AGENT RUSH'S REPORT.

Special Cotton Agent Forwarded Report to Government Thursday.

Benjamin Rush, special cotton agent of the United States Government, who is one of the most thoroughly posted men on the staple in Florida, has been busily engaged for the past few days making out his report for this district, the report embodying the condition of crop, etc., to October 18.

Mr. Rush has for years acted in the capacity of special cotton agent for this district, and as a consequence is thoroughly familiar with the duties of that responsible position. His reports are always accurate, as he devotes a great deal of time to securing data and other information.

Under instructions from the Government, Mr. Rush is not permitted to disclose any information for publication, however well he would be pleased to do so. A conservative estimate, however, by old experienced growers who ought to be in a position to know, is to the effect that there is not a difference of more than twenty bales this year, compared with the same date last season, notwithstanding that reports have been circulated to the effect that the crop would fall about one-third short.

COUNTY ROAD WORK.

Four Mules Have Been Added to Force—Work Progressing Finely.

The Board of County Commissioners have purchased four additional mules for county road work, which now gives the county eight teams. These mules were purchased Wednesday through Hunter & Oliver, and were immediately placed in commission on the road to Newberry, now in course of construction.

Supervisor Jesse R. Emerson, with a good force of men, began claying the road Wednesday, and will push the work as rapidly as possible. The force is fortunate in having all the material desired near at hand, hence the haul will be a short one all along the route, with one exception, when the clay must be hauled nearly half a mile.

Supervisor Emerson is very enthusiastic over his work on this road. Being an energetic kind of a fellow, he is ambitious to build as much road as possible in a day, and the material being in abundance and so near the proposed route, on either side, he feels sure he will break the record for distance.

The road leading to and past Spring Park Farm, known as the Bennington road, has recently been worked over by a force under the direction of Supervisor J. B. Sheffield, and is now in first-class condition, according to the statement of Commissioner C. C. Pedrick. This road, which traverses in some instances a very hilly country, was badly washed, and those who have occasion to use the road appreciate the work of Commissioner Pedrick on the thoroughfare.

WORSE THAN ONIONS.

Bad Breath From Indigestion Cannot Be Overcome With Perfumes.

All of us suffer from bad breath—sometimes our own, but oftener that of our friends.

Nine-tenths of this bad breath comes from some stomach trouble, and cannot be overcome by breath perfumes or any other palliative measures.

If you occasionally have a bad breath; if there is heart-burn, flatulence and acid gulpings of undigested food, if the stomach burns or smarts, if there is sleeplessness, nervousness, headaches or any other of the many symptoms of indigestion, use Mi-o-na stomach tablets and get well.

Mi-o-na is not a mere digestive nor a physic, but a tonic remedy that strengthens the muscles of the stomach and bowels so that the flow of gastric juices is increased, and the food is digested naturally and does not stay in the stomach to ferment and poison the breath.

J. W. McCollum & Co. have seen so many cures made by Mi-o-na stomach tablets that they give a guarantee with every 50-cent box that the money will be refunded if the remedy fails to give satisfaction. They take the whole risk, and a box of Mi-o-na will not cost you a penny unless it cures.

Augusta Druggists and Doctors on the Verge of Bitter Fight.

Augusta Ga., Oct. 24.—The Retail Druggists' association of Augusta is to take action on the disagreement now existing between the druggists and the Medical Society.

The pharmacists are deeply incensed at what they term the high-handed demands of the doctors, and the whole affair is on the verge of becoming a bitter fight without quarter. Both sides went into the matter claiming to have only the best of feeling and complete friendliness but a series of unpleasant incidents have occurred, and at present there seems little chance of an amicable arrangement.

The trouble began when the physicians charged the pharmacists generally with counter-prescribing, and demanded that the practice cease, in the name of the state law and ethical right. Other matters relating to the sphere proper to physician and druggists respectively were discussed at the same time, and as a whole form the subject of the contention.

MONOPOLIZE CIRCUS BUSINESS.

Ringling Bros. Secure Possession of the Barnum & Bailey Shows.

New York, Oct. 24—The announcement was made at the Barnum and Bailey offices Tuesday that it was the Ringling Bros., the western circus men, who had secured possession of the "Greatest Show on Earth," and that henceforth it would be run in connection with their other arenic enterprises. The sale was made in London.

The transfer of the Barnum & Bailey show to the new managers places the five Ringling brothers at the head of the circus business in America and leaves them practically without a real rival in the world.

MUTILATED BODY FOUND.

Man Supposed to Have Been Murdered Robbery the Motive.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 24.—The badly decomposed and mutilated body of Luke Bradford, a rich planter and a bachelor, was found near his home in Octagon, Marengo county, 27 miles from Thomasville, Ala., Tuesday afternoon by a negro.

The man had been murdered, robbery being the evident motive. The negro found a trunk near the house which had been broken open and robbed and a search developed the finding of the body. No clew has been obtained.

One Hundredth Anniversary.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 24—The ceremonies commemorating the one hundredth anniversary of the foundation of the Sisters of Providence and the consecration exercises at the new chapel of St Marys of the Woods began Wednesday. Over one hundred prominent visiting Roman Catholic clergymen are participating. Among those here are the Rt. Rev. Diomede Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States and Bishops Chartard and O'Donoghue, of Indianapolis.

British Steamer Aground.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 24.—The British steamship Apollo, Pensacola to Havre, laden with cotton and cement valued at $500,000, is aground on Marquis reef, off Key West, and if a blow is encountered the vessel will go to pieces. Tugs and a wrecking crew have been sent to the relief of the vessel. It is believed that 6,000 seven thousand bales of cotton on the vessel can be saved.

Corpse Held the Reins.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 24—E. A. Willoughby, aged 68 years, became ill and drove to a drug store at Sharpe, Marshall county, to procure drugs but he died in his buggy before reaching home. He was found by the family seated in the buggy, with the reins still in his hands, his faithful mare having headed his dead body to the house.

Atlanta Wants Convention.

Atlanta, Oct. 24—Energetic efforts are being made to bring the presidential nominating convention of the national prohibition party to Atlanta next year by leading members of the local prohibition party and prominent Atlantans who have not in the past been prominently associated with the prohibition movement in Atlanta.

SERMONETTES

BY J. MARVIN NICHOLS

It always interests me to watch those moguls on the Santa Fe push and pull their string of cars up the Rockies. I always catch a vision of the mass of humanity at the foot of the hill. It's no trick to bring that train down—the problem is to hold it back. But it takes a ten-wheeler, and two more to push, to put that train on the range's crest. Don't forget that. The reason so many fellows are yet far down in the valley is that they need "a helper." That's what they call these mighty locomotives—"helpers." After all—you are to blame if a poor fellow stays at the foot of the hill. There are grades on life's railway that no human being can pull by himself. He'd get to the top of the hill if he could. Either the grade is too heavy, or his boiler is too weak—likely both with the most of us. Can't you see that?

The almost epidemic of suicide, the sudden stoppage of the heart, the unheralded dethronement of even massive brains, the drug wrecks along the way—these all point to a terrific moral. Strong and stalwart ancestry—yes, plus the wild and hurried rush of the age. Some of us are starving our nerves to death. This awful rush for gold is nothing less than a human murder-mill. And, if not suicide, it brings a moral delinquency that can be excused on the grounds of the purest sympathy—if we who have less depletion would only understand. Poison the moral sense in the region of the nerve centers where it is generated and uncontrollable hands reach forth to be polluted. Bryan, the commoner was deep-sighted when he spoke of our "cross of gold." The majority of nervous wrecks are moral eccentries—nothing more. Half the suicides over depleted fortunes are men just money-mad. Many of the defaulters belong to the money-crazed. Shall it go on forever? Is there no purging of the fount whence come these poisoned waters in our civic and moral life? If there be anything in the unerring laws of heredity, we are destined either to sneak out of life's back door, or we shall bring on a generation of moral imbeciles whose solicitary destination is the human junk pile—the mad house. Our nervous bank account is overdrawn. In this age of desperate hurry we close each day with our reserve force overdrawn. We will not stop for inventory—for repairs. The human machinery wabbles on. The wonder is there is not a greater moral irregularity. You are hastening to the junk heap, you are rushing to the insane ward out yonder. But what shall be the blame we attach? Under this awful waste I now know that things which appear right to me may be hideously wrong when viewed by another. How can you blame the man if in a state of coma he has not the remotest sense of pain? There is a moral stupor. There are times when the conscience has no lucid interval. However brightly the sun may shine in the far-off firmament, still its rays will not penetrate the cloud. Sometimes the throttle will not close when we are headed down a heavy grade. The engineer, whose hand is on the throttle, had as well be dead. The moral sensibilities and the nervous system touch at every point in their boundaries. No power comes from the electric current if the wire be grounded. A nervous wreck is a grounded wire—there can be no play of moral forces. This age has in it a strange narcotic. Once under the spell it is worse than a nightmare. No human knows its agony save that when it begins to emerge from its night and gloom. I offer no excuse for any sort of wrong. I would be piteous and considerate—that's all. But could one be more kingly?

LAPSE OF REASONING.

Instances by Two of the World's Greatest Benefactors.

To illustrate the kind of lapse of reasoning power from which great inventors are known to suffer, like that under influence of which Sir Isaac Newton cut one hole in a wall to let a cat pass through and then a small hole for the kitten, an old story in the life of Morse will answer well. Long before he invented the telegraph Morse was known to the officers of the patent office as a persistent applicant for patents. When his great invention of "distance writing" was about completed he wanted the Baltimore and Ohio Railway company to try it.

To get rid of him the president of the road turned him over to a subordinate. This official was struck with the beauty of the invention and became so interested in it that he sat up half the night discussing it with the inventor. At length Morse confessed there was only one thing which baffled him. "As long as the railroad runs," he said, "where poles may be erected it will be easy sailing, but when we come to the big bridges what is to be done then? We can't erect poles across the stream, and without them the wire would sag and perhaps break from its own weight. I confess I don't know what to do. Can't you suggest a way out of the difficulty?

"Why don't you fasten the wires to the bridge?" asked his companion without a moment's hesitation. For a moment Morse gazed at him, with open mouth, and then exclaimed: "Why not, indeed? Why, I never thought of that. It's the very way."

The layman's tip put the finishing touch to the work of the great inventor, and thus wires came to be strung on bridges when crossing large streams.

Bismarck's Retort.

One evening when the German troops were before Paris Duke Ernst of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha began grumbling in Bismarck's presence because the iron cross of the first class, given for bravery in the field of battle, had been distributed too indiscriminately. Bismarck replied that the distribution of such decorations was always a delicate and difficult task, "for," said he, "conspicuous merit has to be rewarded, but in some cases conspicuous position, with or without merit, cannot be overlooked. See now," he said, "Moltke has it, Roon has it, Blumenthal has it. Excellent! But," he added, "your highness and I have it, too, and surely it is not for us to grumble."

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

"TRIBUTE TO WHOM TRIBUTE."

[Florida School Exponent.]

Without doubt, and without any disparagement to the other counties of the State, it may be truthfully asserted that Alachua is not only educationally—as well as in some other regards, perhaps—the leading county in the State, but under the wise and careful management of one of the most able county superintendents and school boards Florida affords, its school system is growing more rapidly, perhaps, than is that of any other county.

The school board, composed of Hon. R. B. Weeks—familiarly and affectionately known all over the county as "Uncle Bob"—Hon. J. F. Futch and Hon. H. B. Brooker, is as strong and capable a board as can be found in Florida. While careful, conscientious and conservative, they are liberal, broad-minded and progressive; and both in their official capacity and as private citizens they take great interest in all that pertains to the educational and moral uplift of the county. It would have been impossible, perhaps, to have selected from the whole county three men more perfectly suited to the needs of the hour.

Chairman Weeks has been a member of the board for many, many years, and has come to look upon the system pretty much as a doting father regards a son he has watched grow up to noble manhood under his loving care and training.

The county builded better than it knew when it placed Dr. J. L. Kelley—for years an active member of the school board—in the office of county superintendent. For once the man and the need met. When in 1903 he was appointed a member of the board he found the school board some $80,000 in debt. By his careful management, his constant watchfulness and his great ability as a financier, he has in the three years of his administration brought the debt down to about $10,000, and at the same time has both lengthened the school term and increased the salaries of teachers. Under his management there has been, too, equally as great an improvement in the teaching force and in the school work itself, as in the finances. He now has a corps of teachers of which any county superintendent might well be proud.

A most excellent business man, an able financier, energetic, tireless, and zealous in the cause of education, he is simply a model county superintendent. For three years he has labored literally day and night to put the school board on its feet financially, and to systematize, organize and put life and spirit into the system. He has had the satisfaction of seeing his purpose largely accomplished, and Alachua county owes him a great debt of gratitude she will never be able fully to discharge.

We have written the above because we believe that when men labor as have Dr. Kelley and his board so tirelessly and unselfishly for the public good, some public notice should be taken of it, not only as a tribute justly owed to their worth and work, but as an incentive to others to go "and do likewise." We speak from personal knowledge. We have been constantly on the ground, and have watched their work with great interest and admiration. We are not seeking to curry anyone's favor. We could have no motive for writing this except to give to some good public servants what is justly due them; for when these lines meet their eyes, the writer will no longer be connected with them other than by ties of friendship, gratitude and pleasant memories.

BRYAN AND SCRIPTURE.

Mrs. Bryan still finds amusement in reciting the difficulties Mr. Bryan encountered when he sought her father's consent to their marriage, says The November Delineator.

"Many people have remarked upon the fondness which Mr. Bryan shows for quoting Scripture," Mrs. Bryan said. "This habit is one of long standing, as the following circumstance plainly shows. When it seemed proper for William to have a little conversation with my father it was something of an ordeal, as father is rather a reserved man. In his dilemma William sought refuge in the Scriptures and began: 'Mr. Baird, I have been reading Proverbs a good deal lately, and find that Solomon says, "Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favor of the Lord."' Father, being something of a Bible scholar, replied: 'Yes, I believe Solomon did say that, but Paul suggests that "While he that marrieth doeth well, he that marrieth not doeth better."' Solomon would be a better authority upon this point,' he rejoined, 'because Paul was never married, while Solomon had many wives.' After this tilt the matter was satisfactorily adjusted."

The Bryans delight in farm life. They have a small place near Lincoln, Nebraska, and much of their time is spent there.

The Taft program in Ohio is to join hands with the trolley politicians in all the cities of that State this year, in order to secure "legal" regulated monopoly, which is now the shibboleth of his party. The plan is to rob the people of all power over franchises and hitch the local governments as trailers to the trolley trust, just as Roosevelt wants to hitch the State governments, as trailers, to the steam railroad companies. It is a fine scheme of plunder and corruption, but it is too palpable to be successful.

Took $800, But Left Savings and Trinkets of Baby.

New York, Oct. 24.—A burglar with sentiment is popularly supposed to be a rarity, but such a one has been found here. He stole $800 in money and valuables from the home of Gustus T. Ruland, a sea captain, but refused to take the savings of Ruland's little daughter, Grace, about $18 or her few jewelry trinkets.

Instead of rifling the girl's bank, he left this note on it:

"I have a sweet little girl of my own. I hate to be in this business, but I am compelled to. My regards to the baby."

Harry Thaw's Birthplace Sold.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—Harry K. Thaw has sold his interest in his birthplace. He and Evelyn Nesbit Thaw deeded their share in the Thaw homestead and adjacent property in the downtown section of Pittsburg to his brothers and sisters. The documents in the transaction were prepared in New York on Aug. 16 last, before Peter Dooling, clerk of New York county, and were recorded by John W. Fairman, recorder of this county. The consideration named is $120,000.

HOW BONNER WON SUCCESS

The career of Robert Bonner, the veteran publisher, furnishes a signal illustration of the value of persistent and sagacious advertising. When he began the publication of the paper whose phenomenal success brought him fame and fortune, he did not wait for the people to find out, slowly and gradually, the interesting features of his journal.

He forced his enterprise upon public attention by a systematic lavishness of expenditure for advertising which at that time was without precedent or parallel. Whole pages of daily newspapers were secured at high prices to blazon forth the merits of his undertaking.

From one end of the country to the other the names of Bonner and his Ledger were made familiar to the people by constant repetition.

Conservative publishers, jogging along in the ruts of old routine, prophesied bankruptcy and ruin for this unconventional innovator, but Bonner kept on spending a large share of his receipts in buying publicity, and those receipts increased with startling rapidity.

Every dollar disbursed in this way brought in more dollars until croakers were confounded and pessimists in this particular branch of business silenced by his tremendous success.

The lesson is one that is as well worth heeding today as it was forty years ago.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

SUSPENDS TRADING.

Pittsburg Financial Circles Thrown into an Uproar.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—Pittsburg financial circles were thrown into an uproar at the opening of business on the Pittsburg Stock Exchange when Secretary C. J. Holman made the following announcement:

"At the request of the Pittsburg Clearing House and at the suggestion of the members and board of directors of the Pittsburg Stock Exchange it is closed for the day."

Immediately following this President R. C. Hall issued a statement reading as follows:

"The Security Investment company finds itself involved. This necessitates a temporary suspension or relinquishment of the Westinghouse Electric company and the Westinghouse Machine company and the Nernst Lamp company. The manufacturing companies are in an absolutely solvent condition. The condition of the Security Investment company will in no way affect the Union Switch and Signal company or the Westinghouse Air Brake company. I would like it explicitly understood that it was at the request of the Pittsburg clearing house that we have suspended trading temporarily."

Verdict in Warnick Case.

Talbot, Ga., Oct 24—The jury in the case of Claud Warnick, charged with the murder of Chester Wilson, brought in a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, after having been out on the case all night. It is understood that eight were for conviction and three for acquittal, one of them being excused on account of sickness. Warnick's uncle, who captured him in Knoxville, was here and took considerable interest in his nephew's behalf. It is understood the reward of $200, which he received, was used in defraying expenses of the defense.

BABY TORTURED BY ITCHING RASH

Face and Feet Covered—Rest Broken and Would Cry Until Tired Out—"Cradle Cap" Added to Baby's Torture—Tries Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment.

IMMEDIATE RELIEF AND SPEEDY CURE

"My baby was about nine months old when she had rash on her face and feet. Her feet seemed to irritate her most, especially nights. They would cause her to be broken of her rest, and sometimes she would cry until she was tired out. I had always used Cuticura Soap myself, and had heard of so many cures by the Cuticura Remedies that I thought I would give them a trial. The improvement was noticeable in a few hours, and before I had used one box of the Cuticura Ointment her feet were well and have never troubled her since. I also used it to remove what is known as "cradle cap" from her head, and it worked like a charm as it cleansed and healed the scalp at the same time. Now I keep Cuticura Ointment on hand in case of any little rash or insect bites, as it takes out the inflammation at once. Perhaps this may be the means of helping other suffering babies. Mrs. Hattie Currier, Thomaston, Me., June 9, 1906."

EMPEROR IMPROVED.

Physicians Admit That Convalescence Has Begun.

Vienna, Oct 24.—Everything Wednesday morning pointed to a decided improvement in the health of Emperor Francis Joseph. His attending physicians admit that convalescence has begun.

During the early part of the day, the emperor signed state documents with a firm hand.

Direct Outlet to the Sea.

Atlanta, Oct. 24—President H. M. Atkinson, of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad, announced Tuesday that a regular passenger and freight service will be inaugurated to Talladega, Ala., about Nov. 15, which will be the first time a railroad has entered this particular section to give the shippers and traveling public a direct outlet to the sea via LaGrange to Brunswick. It is expected that the road will reach Bessemer and Birmingham by March of next year.

Watch Jewels.

Each watch jewel is shaped to a circle and bored through the center, each boring being just a little less than the diameter of the pinion used in the factory where it is finally to be placed in the upper or lower plate of a watch.

Before the jewel gets to the setter it has been put into a lathe and by means of a minute steel point covered with diamond dust and oil the center has been enlarged to fit the steel pinions which shall be housed in it. In the hands of the setter the cylinder is put into a lathe. With a moistened finger the jewel is picked up and placed inside the cylinder as it rests on the tip of the revolving lathe shaft. With a pointed tool the setter presses against the revolving cylinder edge, forcing the soft metal to overlap and close upon the sapphire or ruby till it is imbedded firmly in the metal cushion. Then a pressure upon a follower at the other end of the lathe brings a cutter to bear upon the metal circumference, turning it to the exact size of the jewel hole in the plate of the watch, with the hole in the center of the jewel exactly in the center of the metal setting.—New York Times.

This Serpent Out of the Heage.

When a man doth not directly or expressly charge his neighbor with faults, but yet so speaketh that he is understood or reasonably presumed to do it, this is a very cunning and very mischievous way of slandering, for therein the skulking calumniator keepeth a reserve for himself and cutteth off from the person concerned the means of defense. If he goeth to clear himself from the matter of such aspersions, "What need," saith this insidious speaker, "of that? Must I needs mean you? Did I name you? Why do you then assume it to yourself? Do you not prejudge yourself guilty? I did not, but your own conscience, it seemeth, doth accuse you. You are so jealous and suspicious as persons overwise or guilty use to be." So meaneth this serpent out of the hedge securely and unavoidably to bite his neighbor and is in that respect more base and more hurtful than the most flat and positive slanderer.—Isaac Barrow.

Julius Caesar

Was a man of nerve, but sickness left its mark and he became aged before his time. Sickness is often caused by a torpid liver. Herbine will regulate your liver and give you health. Mrs. Carrie Austin, Hollon, Kansas, writes: "I consider Herbine the best medicine I ever heard of. I am never without it." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Corporal Got a Chill Too.

The captain tells a story which runs something like this: In camp one morning the first sergeant reported that Private B. had a chill. "Is it a serious one?" asked the captain. "We-ell, sir, I don't know just how serious it is, but it's a big one, for it seems to be all over him and he weighs 240 pounds." On seeing him the captain found him to be rather blue and instructed the first sergeant to send him to the man in charge of a corporal's guard. Soon after breakfast the captain saw the man and asked him how the chill was getting on. "Oh, he's all right now," was the reply. "I took him up to the hospital tent, and when I saw what kind of medicine the doctor gave him I had a chill too."—Army and Navy Life.

THE PERFECT WAY

Scores of Florida Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, there is only one way to cure it.

The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys.

Neglect it, urinary troubles follow.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short time."

The Unpopular Pump.

"That famous temperance reformer Francis Murphy," said a Pittsburg man, had many an odd adventure in the course of his very useful life. He once told me of a case where a drinking man with a neat joke got for the moment a little the better of him in an argument. The man was a chieftain, a bon vivant, famous for his wine cellar, and Mr. Murphy read him a strong lecture on the drink evil. But the bon vivant only smiled, shook his head and said:

"'Well, Mr. Murphy, I have seen many a pleasant party around a table, but I have never seen one around a pump.'"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

His Consolation.

John and Willie are twins. Their best friend and playfellow is Archie, who is gifted with red hair and a hot temper. One day they quarreled and Archie started home in a huff. The unsympathetic twins called after him, "Red head, red head!" Archie seemed not to hear until the insult was repeated. Then he turned and called back, "Don't care if I am red headed; I ain't twins, and folks can tell me apart!"—Grand Forks Press.
